

Ms. Anna Marella Lagrotta
Investor Relations

Ms. Anna Marella Lagrotta is in charge of the Investor Relations Program of the Directorate of Public Financing at the Ministry of Economy and Finance, whose main objective is to provide investors with relevant and updated information of the Republic of Panama; as well as promote investment opportunities related to the Panamanian market through quarterly conference calls, bilateral meetings and roadshows. Previously, she worked in Latin Clear, the Panamanian securities depository, as an operations analyst where she was in charge of international operations and later on as project management analyst where she was part of the team that developed the “i-Link” platform that opened up the local market to international investors.

Ms. Lagrotta graduated with a Bachelor in International Business from Universidad Católica Santa María La Antigua (USMA). During 2016, she completed a Master in Public Administration, with a specialization in Economy and Finance, at Cornell University, where she received the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor of recognition of excellence in the field of public administration. Additionally, she was selected to participate in the “CIPA-SVYM” Cornell program where she conducted research during 4 months in India on the impact of Microfinance programs in the development of Human and Social Capital.