

Pedro Ariel Espinosa began his professional career in the area of International Relations at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs

In the Ministry of Economy and Finance, he joined the Department of Negotiation and Relations with Investors of the Public Financing Directorate, participating in the negotiation of loans and in the relationship with International Financial Institutions (IFIs).

In March 2016, he was appointed Head of Capital Markets, in charge of the structuring, negotiation and placement of financial instruments of public debt in the domestic capital market, as well as in charge of the Market Makers Program managed by the Ministry of Economy and Finance.

In February 2017, he was appointed Head of Credit Resources Management Department.

Mr. Espinosa has Master's Degree in Economics and Finance from the Central American Institute of Business Administration (INCAE). Master's Degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in Finance from the Interamerican University of Panama (UIP). Postgraduate in High Management of the Interamerican University of Panama (UIP). Bachelor in Financial Management, Banking and International Business from the Universidad Latina de Panamá. Bachelor in Humanities from the University of Panama.