

Carlos Ledezma comes to the MEF with more than 14 years in the banking and finance industry, starting in stock and bond market investments, then migrating to investment analysis and market risks in several financial institutions in Panama.

Mr. Ledezma has participated in corporate equity issuances, public debt and liability management. His experience is focused on the projection of interest rates, currencies, commodities and fundamental and technical analysis of securities in general.

Education:

Bachelor's degree in Finance from Florida State University in the United States (FSU).